GLOBAL

Join the best thinkers in global mobility, HR and leadership, in a glorious countryside setting with a festival feel.

Celebrate wellbeing and experience innovation at first hand and meet our award winners in person.

Building on the success of our previous festivals in London, this is a superb opportunity to network and entertain clients in a vibrant environment, where good conversations happen, ideas flow and knowledge is shared. Learn from inspiring speakers how to take your organisation to the next level.

Thought leadership hubs will delve deeper into exploring:

- WELLBEING AND ENGAGEMENT – managing workplace health, wellbeing and productivity
- LEADERSHIP – leading and shaping the future
- INNOVATION AND AGILITY – technology, AI, digital, cutting edge developments
- GLOBAL MOBILITY, FUTURE OF WORK AND WORKPLACE – expertise and response to change

Our expert panel will share their thoughts and set the agenda for the day which will be hosted by Jayne Constantinis, experienced, international television presenter.

KEYNOTE PANEL INCLUDES:

Ian Hesketh – author Managing Workplace Health and Wellbeing during a Crisis, Wellbeing at Work, National Forum for Health and Wellbeing at Work

Linda Holbeche – Adjunct Professor Imperial College Business School, author The Agile Organization, Organizational Development

Sarah Rozenhuler – chartered psychologist and leadership consultant, author Powered by Purpose, How to have meaningful Conversations

HUB SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

- Claus Springborg – leadership consultant, entrepreneurship, Copenhagen Business School, author, Sensory and Manager Cognition
- Vlatka Hlupic – CEO, The Management Shift, Professor of Leadership and Management at Hult International Business School (Ashridge)
- Paul Williamson – Head of Learning & Development, Ambassador Theatre Group
- Peter Moolan-Feroze – Artist, business & creativity consultant

Festival sponsorship

Don't miss the chance to align your brand with the Future of Work Festival. Our sponsors will bring a unique element to the Festival experience by helping to shape the content of our thought leadership hubs.

You will have the opportunity to work with some of our inspiring speakers to showcase your expertise and understanding of working in a global business environment in changing times.

The venue

Twelve acres of garden and grounds in the Garden of England in Kent. Easily accessible by rail, road and from airports*. Fabulous marquee to enjoy top speakers and discussion, entertain your clients for lunch and awards ceremony in style.

Transport can be arranged*

The experience

The keynote and panel discussion will be held in a bespoke, wood frame marquee, designed and made in Cornwall.

Guests will also enjoy outside meeting hubs, combined with 'walk and talk' opportunities in our twelve acres of grounds.

This is a special opportunity to discover the healing power of nature and the importance of environment and the natural world and stimulate conversations around climate change and sustainability.

Background

The Future of Work Festival is produced by multimedia Relocate Global and builds on the success of two previous conference festivals held in London.

Our purpose is to support globally minded people and organisations to flourish and grow by providing a high quality event, this year in the unique countryside setting of our HQ, in Lamberhurst, close to historic Royal Tunbridge Wells in the beautiful Weald of Kent.

Our audience & content agenda

Our people lens on industry sectors & the workplace of the future

We explore the people behind the changes across industry sectors around the world, and their impact on working practices and workplaces. By examining global supply chains, we hope to encourage more collaboration across disciplines and industry sectors to help management and leadership teams solve some of the big and complex issues of today. These include climate change and sustainability, the challenges of globalisation and shifting demographics, as well as education, health, social and economic inequalities.

There are always opportunities and ways of working better. Our knowledge-sharing communities will help you to connect at local, regional and global levels to support people and help organisations to grow.
